THE VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the Supplement to the London Gazette of the 2nd May, 1879.)

War Office, May 2nd, 1879.

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Soldiers of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for their gallant conduct in the defence of Rorke's Drift, on the occasion of the attack by the Zulus, as recorded against their names, viz:—

By Reg.—Lieut. (now Capt. & Bt. Maj.) J. R. M. CHARD. } For their gallant conduct in the defence of Rorke's Drift, on the occasion of the attack by the Zulus on the 22nd and 23rd January, 1879. }
1st Bn. 24th Reg.—Lieut. (now Capt. & Bt. Maj.) G. BROMHEAD, }
2nd Bn. 24th Reg.—Lieut. (now Capt. & Bt. Maj.) G. BROMHEAD, }

The Lieutenant General commanding the troops reports that, had it not been for the example and excellent behaviour of these two Officers under the most trying circumstances, the defence of Rorke's Drift post would not have been conducted with that intelligence and tenacity which so essentially characterised it.

The Lieutenant General adds, that its success must, in a great degree, be attributable to the two young Officers who exercised the chief command on the occasion in question.

1st Bn. 24th Reg.—Private JOHN WILLIAMS.—Private John Williams was posted with Private Joseph Williams and Private William Horrigan, 1 Bn. 24th Reg., in a distant room of the hospital, which they held for more than an hour, so long as the Zulus were enabled to advance and burst open the door; they dragged out the Zulus were occupied with the slaughter of these men a lull took place, during which Private John Williams, who, with two patients, were the only men now left alive in this ward, succeeded in knocking a hole in the partition, and in taking the two patients into the next ward, where he found Private Hook.

2nd Bn. 24th Reg.—Private HENRY HOOK.—These two men together, one man working whilst the other fought and held the enemy at bay with his bayonet, broke through three more partitions, and were thus enabled to bring eight patients through a small window into the inner line of defence.

1st Bn. 24th Reg.—Private WILLIAM JONES and Private ROBERT JONES.—In another ward, facing the hill, Private William Jones and Private Robert Jones defended the post to the last, until six out of the seven patients it contained had been removed. The seventh, Sergeant Maxfield, 2 Bn. 24th Reg., was delirious from fever. Although they had previously dressed him, they were unable to induce him to move. When Private Robert Jones returned to endeavour to carry him away, he found him being stabbed by the Zulus as he lay on his bed.

2nd Bn. 24th Reg.—Corporal WILLIAM ALLEN and Private FREDERICK HITCH.—It was chiefly due to the courageous conduct of these men that communication with the hospital was kept up at all. Holding together at all costs a most dangerous post, raked in reverse by the enemy's fire from the hill, they were both severely wounded, but their determined conduct enabled the patients to be withdrawn from the hospital, and when incapacitated by their wounds from fighting, they continued, as soon as their wounds had been dressed, to serve out ammunition to their comrades during the night.

MEMORANDUM.

Lieut. MELVILLE, of the 1st Bn. 24th Foot, on account of the gallant efforts made by him to save the Queen's Colour of his Reg. after the disaster at Isandlwana, and also Lieut. COCKILL, 1 Bn. 24th Foot, on account of his heroic conduct in endeavouring to save his brother officer's life, would have been recommended to Her Majesty for the Victoria Cross had they survived.

Whilst the Zulus were occupied with the slaughter of these men a lull took place, during which Private John Williams, who, with two patients, were the only men now left alive in this ward, succeeded in knocking a hole in the partition, and in taking the two patients into the next ward, where he found Private Hook.

It will be the duty of officers commanding regiments or corps of the Auxiliary Forces to take care, in every case, that the children of the permanent staff attend some school, which must be either an Army school, or a certified efficient, or inspected school. (See also Clause 124, Army Circulars, 1879.)

MILITIA.

Cl. 139.—Enlistment of Boys.

The following will be substituted for paragraph 2, Clause 45, Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circulars, 1876:—

2. No boy will be enlisted under the age of 14 years, except under very special circumstances, and then only with the previous consent of his parents or guardians. In any case, however, boys enlisted for the Militia must be over 15 years of age, that being the age up to which compulsory attendance at school is fixed by the Education Act.

VOLUNTEER REGULATIONS.

Cl. 140.—Enrolled Members—Boys.

The following will be substituted for paragraphs 391 and 392 of the Volunteer Regulations (Revised Army Regulations, Vol. IX.):—

392. The application to the general officer commanding the district for authority will, in the case of boys intended to be trained as trumpeters or buglers, show the number of trumpeters or buglers, and the number of boys being trained as such, already enrolled in the corps. In the case of boys to be enrolled for the band, the application will give the number of enrolled Volunteers serving as bandsmen—distinguishing men from boys under 17—and also the number of boys being trained as bandsmen. In all cases it will be stated whether the consent of the parents or guardians of the boys it is proposed to enrol has been obtained.

Cl. 141.—Reports and Returns.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, on the 24th May, 1879.)

The following alterations will be made in the Volunteer Regulations (Revised Army Regulations, Vol. IX.):—

1. 2. The following War Office Form has been cancelled:—

ERRATA.

The last five lines of paragraph 9, Clause 25, Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circulars, 1879, were erroneously cancelled by Clause 84, Army Circulars, 1879. They should be as still in force, but in line 14 of the paragraph in question the word "through" will be omitted.

The words after "Royal Marines" in the last two lines of paragraph 223 of the Volunteer Regulations (Revised Army Regulations, Vol. IX.), were cancelled in error by Clause 84, Army Circulars, 1879. The words of paragraph 223 which should be in the Appendix to Clause 86, Army Circulars, 1879, page 73, under the heading of Section III., "artificers' tools, for 'augers, bottled-nose,' read 'augers, bull-nose.' In Clause 110, Army Circulars, 1879, second line, for 'Clause 187, Army Circulars, 1871,' read 'Clause 182, Army Circulars, 1871.'

XV. ORDERS—continued.

- II. The parchment certificates will be sent to their registered place of abode, by post, in a registered envelope.
- III. Steps should be taken in advance, to ensure the recovery of the enrolment certificate (W. O. Form 65), before the date on which the man is entitled to discharge.

G.O. 82.—Discharges.

- I. Commanding officers of regiments at foreign stations will in future send a list of no-expired men to the Commandant at Netley, and to the depôts, at least a fortnight before their embarkation for discharge in England.
- II. Steps should be taken to ensure the savings bank accounts of these men being opened and forwarded to the depôts at the same time.
- III. Section 20, para. 52, of "the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1773," will be amended accordingly.

G.O. 83.—Officers' Dress.

A slight alteration has been made in the belt for officers of the Royal Engineers, to enable the slings to be removed whenever the sword is allowed to be taken off.

G.O. 84.—Fraudulent Enlistments.

All cases of soldiers who are discovered to have falsely stated at the time of their enlistment that they were unmarried, are to be submitted to the general officer commanding the district for his decision.

G.O. 85.—National Rifle Association—Army Prizes.

I. The annual rifle competition for the Army Prizes and Challenge Cup given by the National Rifle Association will take place at Wimbledon on the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th of July, and the following conditions as to the selection of competitors are to be strictly observed.

- II. The proportion of competitors allowed to be furnished is as follows:—

Two from each regiment of Cavalry.

Four from each brigade of Royal Artillery.

Twelve from the Royal Engineers, divided as follows:

|                   |     |   |
| From Chatham      | ... | 4 |
| " Aldershot       | ... | 4 |
| " All other Home  |     |   |
| Stations combined |     | 4 |

Two per battalion from each regiment of Infantry.

Two from each Brigade Depot.

III. The object of these prizes being to encourage good shooting among the rank and file, one competitor from each regiment, battalion, and depot, and two from each brigade of Royal Artillery or division of Royal Engineers must be privates. Commanding officers will transmit the accompanying forms "O 1," properly filled up, to the Adjutant General, Horse Guards, War Office, in duplicate, and so as to arrive not later than 1st July next (after which date no applications will be attended to), holding the men ready to proceed to Wimbledon,—according to arrangements to be made by the Quartermaster General,—under charge of officers to be hereafter named for duty with them.

IV. The men are to be fully equipped in every respect, and special care must be taken in selecting men for this honourable duty, that preference is given, not only to those who are good shots, but to such as are also of good character and steady habits, and who will be likely in every respect to do credit to their corps while absent herefrom.

V. The competition will be with bonâ fide Government Martini rifles or carbines. In the case of the Cavalry and Artillery competitors, rifles can be obtained on application to the Secretary of the Association. As a pull-off of less than 6 pounds will disqualify a competitor, care must be taken that the locks of the arms belonging to the different parties are carefully tested before proceeding to Wimbledon.

VI. As the National Rifle Association has decided that Volunteers competing for prizes may, at all the distances, fire in "any position," the same relaxation of the Hythe rules will be allowed to the regular troops competing for the Army Challenge Cup prizes at Wimbledon.

VII. The commanding officer of the battalion which gives the winner in the second stage, will be held responsible by the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief for the safe custody of the "Challenge Cup," and for its return to the Secretary of the National Rifle Association by the 15th of June of the year following that in which it was competed for.

VIII. The names of the winners of prizes will be published in General Orders.

G.O. 86.—Signalling.

G.O. 86.—Signalling.

III. When communicating with the Navy the numerical signs only are to be used.

IV. The columns of letters in the codes and tables have been inserted for the use of men under instruction, that they may be made familiar with the book during the time of their learning the Morse alphabet.

V. In the case of a non-commissioned officer appointed at a foreign station, the documents detailed in Arts. 3 and 4 will be transferred to the district commissary general or commissary general of Ordnance, as the case may be.

VI. As conductors cannot avail themselves of military savings banks, the account of a non-commissioned officer appointed a conductor will be closed by the regiment or corps from which he is transferred on the date of his being confirmed in the appointment.

VII. Officers commanding corps or regiments, will forward to the headquarters of the departments any of the documents detailed in paragraph 2, which may not already have been transmitted.

"The high character of this manual requires no critical comments to recommend it. The fact of its having reached its fourth edition may be taken as sufficient evidence of its worth. Should there be a naval officer without this work in his necessarily small library, we should say, look if you cannot give it the space of a less valuable book."

"A volume—a perfect knowledge of which would render any man a most agreeable and instructive companion—a guide, philosopher and friend. It is a 'Manual of Scientific Inquiry' by the best authors, in a most compendious form, well got out and general who had such a book off by heart. He certainly would possess a great deal of most useful knowledge."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"The present is the fourth edition of this well-known work, and although the editor has not altered the general form of the book or the arrangement of the articles, he has by adequate revision provided that such of them as required it, through the additional knowledge gained in the last twelve years, be brought up to the present epoch. It is impossible to speak too highly of this work, which may be considered as one of the most useful scientific works now published."—Scientific Review.

"The idea which prompted this publication was an excellent one, and the result is one it was intended. Useful instruction in Her Majesty's Navy, for whose special use it was intended. Useful instruction in general matters of science is here provided, and the present edition conveys this instruction through the light of the latest scientific discoveries."—Civil Service Gazette.
